

Flex Days Guidelines 2014-2015

Wink Junior High/ High School will have two week of flex days for the 2014-2015 school year. This flex schedule allows up to 10 instructional days where a student will report at 10:00 a.m. if they meet the prerequisite guidelines.

Pre-Assessment Flex Hours are designed to assist students who did not pass one or more STAAR/EOC tests the previous year, students who have failed one of more subjects during the school year, and students who need to make up time due to attendance issues. Assistance will be provided through small-group, personalized learning leading up to the 2015 STAAR/EOC testing.

The weeks of Pre-Assessment Flex Hours are:

October 27 - 31, 2014
February 23 – 27, 2015

STUDENT REQUIREMENTS FOR FLEX WEEK

Meet the Attendance/Tardy Standard.

The attendance portion will be determined by the class period with the most absences.

The tardy portion will be the total number of tardies for the semester.

Passed all classes each six weeks and passing all classes on designated date.

Passed STAAR /EOC tests for the 2014 administration.

Student in 12th grade must have passed all assessments required for graduation.

Flex day attendance is required by all students who do not met the above criteria. If a student skips a Flex day tutorial time they will not be allowed to participate in extracurricular activities that day.

Students having an unexcused absence during flex time will be required to make up time through Saturday School.
